LETTER FROM THE MAYOR. MEETING OF CORK

THE POLITICAL PRISONERS AND NATIONALISTS.

THE EVICTED TENANTS. (FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

Cork, Sunday Night. In connection with Mr John Morley's visit

ine Press :-

"Municipal Buildings, Cork,

" 25th Febrbury, 1894. that he feels bound to adhere to his original consented to accept the invitation of the ties, and, should alteration or enlargement be determination, and for the reasons set forth on Chamber, and will join with that body in his behalf in my letter to the hon secretary of receiving Mr Morley on Monday.

. He desires me to add that he has arrived at this conclusion with deep pain and extreme reluctance, but that he is convinced no other course would have been compatible either with self-respect or his duty to the office he has the bopour to bold as head of the Municipality. "The Mayor sincerely hopes at the same time that the object of the Chief Secretary's visit may be attended with the success which lowing letter from Earl Spencer :he, in common with all classes of his fellows.r. faithfully yours, "DF GILTINAS."

the attitude that should be adopted towards 21st March, 1895. and was at once unanimous and onthusiastic. place or time. Mr John Slattery presided. There were also

Wren, RS M'Namars, P Boylan, J Cronin, Leafly, D O'Leary, W Lee, M Kearney, J remain, sir, yours faithfully,

1-. The Chairman said that that meeting of Sationalists had been hurriedly called together f withe purpose of letting Mr John Morley and the Government know that the promises they had made before entering office had not been performed (hear, hear). He believed Mr deriev had come into office well inclined paseds Ireland, but he also knew that the promises made by himself and Lord Ripon to Political and still blocked the way (lond applause).

'sprieger in Cork of jury-packing, in addition | Ireland. Lice i for this country (applause).

the was very good with his promises, and logy -which should be facts-and is justice a to imple were soft-hearted enough to believe humbig unless confronted by might, since the E. sul what was the result? Promises Irish Volunteers consented to disarm?

were tree only ray of hope in the prisoners' control in roofs and curved sides and hips lives (hear, hear). The prisoners were en- thinly protected would alike provide for easy trapped by Government money, and, with entry of ships masted as nowadays and for the these facts before them, the Government, if glaucing instead of penetration of any dropping they were never bound by their promises to shot from outside the harbour. Presence of Ireland, were bound in justice to release them | labour beyond what building ground could be The Chairman, in putting the resolution. said they were asking for justice, not mercy; leader-in these days of steam launches, when the cost was (loud applause).

and the proceedings terminated. Cork, Saturday. The arrangements in connection with the visit of Mr John Morley to Cork were completed to-day. Mr Morley will arrive by the damage to ships there from hostile fire at the ng at 11 15 o'clook, and will be joined at the it from outside Roche's Point, inside which to Cork to-morrow the Mayor, through his Glanmire station by the members of the Cork any vessel must come to sight a gun on Haulsecretary, has written the following letter to Chamber of Commerce, who will accompany bowline. There she would be under the conhas been engaged, and will take the party on Forts Camden and Carlisle at one mile cach, merce and Shipping receiving Mr Morley Mr Morley will be entertained at dinner at the the chart at over four miles distance, uncerthe most influential members of the council Terminus at six minutes past ton. As the battleships; Passage for all smaller ones, he did consent as stated to take part in the result of an informal conference between the cruisers, &c, down to torpado boats, inclusive since deemed it his duty to reconsider all the Commerce to-day, and as a consequence of the role for naval work on the Lee. recumstances of the case, with the final result explanations of the latter gentlemen, the Mayor The latter is ready and asking for its equi-

THE HAULBOWLINE DOCKS.

EARL SPENCER AND MR WILLIAM FIELD, M.P. Mr Field, M P, has recently had some correspondence with the Admiralty authorities rethe Haulbowline Docks, and received the fol-

DEAR SIR-Lord Spencer desires me

W GRADAM GREENE.

William Field, Esq. M P.

CORK RIVER DOCKYARDS' RIGHTS. THE EDITOR DAILY INDEPENDENT. Lord Spencer's letter to Captain Denelan shelving the capabilities of the existing ship. have justified the application of all Parliathe irish people had not been fulfilled. They building works and docks on the Lee for mentary effort to forwarding the English were not there to say a word against Mr Morley undertaking much of that required by the but for the purpose of telling him face to face scheme of maval construction now comhe had not kept the promises made by himself mencing, and the equities to the South of aminer' when trying to effect a modus viscadi and his colleagues (applause). For three years Ireland in a portion of such Imperial expendi- between the two parties which would save waste the League and the Nationalists of Cork had ture while paying Imperial taxes, because in tren sending the resolution to Mr Morley, and some points Haulbawline may be unsuitable, they were there to reiterate what they had ornot as fully equipped as it should long ago have altered); none at all can justify now been saying for three years, and that was to been for every description of naval construcat him and his Cabinet to fulfil their pledges tion and repair, as if justice had been done. applause). He referred to a statement made The writer omitted to point out that it lies at by Mr Morley in 1885 to an Irish member, to the most satient point of naval attack, sea or the effect that in the past the Chief Secretaries wave damage, and mail connection with half who came to Dublin Castle were contaminated the world in the home countries, and suband that if be became contaminated likewise marine telegraph cables, one only 295 miles of difference between Unionists, Parnellites, he would resign. He (the chairman) hoped from Brest and Cherbourg fleets (or 16 hours and M'Carthyites-one which should unite test Mr Morley's mind had not become con- at 18 knots), and one commanding the whole all-but the latter alone hold the power to taminated, but whether it had or not they trade-North and South Atlantic and Mediknew that his employes at the Castle wers | terranean -of the English Channel; in short, his masters, and if he was a strong man that | the one with the heaviest naval duties for the employment given, homes saved, and emigraweald not be so (applause). Mr Morley, Lord | Empire; one with almost a certainty of fight | tion stopped by the expenditure of Lord promised ing midway with cruisers from those two Beaconstield's and Mr Balfour's joint Prisoners ports, and consequent heavy damage to fleet when the Liberals had got into power, and also which Plymouth or Portsmouth (both having the five years it went on, can judge best what to reinstate the Evicted Tenants. There was a to provide for Channel, Irish See, and East creat deal of difference between these two coast casualties) may then be too crowded to and continuously on the Lee alone would give To reinstate the tonants it was repair with needful speed, specially if action to the people in that small part of Ireland. recessary that an Act of Parliament should were severe and many mercantile vessels had is passed, but releasing the prisoners requires catered their harbours to wait for safe coursy Will they insist on and secure a full naval coly one line to be written by Asquith or wind, and at the only point which misses) and the prison doors would be open would be effectual should trouble come everything there-a good share of the new applause). The Lords could not prevent it. from the United States simultaneously with and, therefore, there was no excuse whatever Continental warfare. However improbable about the release of the prisoners (hear, hear). that may be, we know that the States are As to the tenants, the Cork evicted tenants making gigantic and State-sided efforts to had written a polite letter to Mr Morley ask- regain their old prominence in the carrying by an ounce of backbone. ing for an interview, and he had replied that trade and protection of the seas in competition he could not see that an interview would serve with us-vide Southampton; they are filled any useful purpose. They were living in with many races beside the Angle-Saxon, and troublesome times, and the people of Ireland are not less inclined than the rest of human should think of themselves, and refuse their nature to avail of an opportunity when it votes to anybody who would say offers to master the sea which is common to pandering to disloyalty." The answer is to these two questions, both shores, and in the effort to supplement teach him what loyalty means by making him Will you agitate for the release of her mercantile marine economically and the Political Prisoners?" and, "Will you speedily by making prizes of ours, knowing scatter for the reinstatement of the tenants? " | well that the more they took the less we could (Applause.) Mr Morley would pass through respond, in fact all conditions would prevent Cars to-morrow, and they would put these us responding at all. Should opportunity to resters face to face with him, and tell him gratify such a temptation with success arise | Marlborough street, Mr Joseph Doyle presidthat if he continued in the present lines it was the price we would have to pay for keeping ing. the daty of the Irish members to vote against peace by concessions would suffice to com- There were also present-Messrs William the loverament if they refused to do anything pletely construct and equip many a larger Buckley, P J Brennan, J J Brennan, P Henefor Ireland (applause). What had they mayal establishment than the most perfect one gan, M M. Manus Keane, John Doran, T M Lieland for the past two that could now be devised on the Lee. It is Graham, John M'Cormac, John Clegg, P years " (Cries of " Nothing.") There were less likely to arise if one or more dockyards. Morgan, Terence Martagh, Arthur Vaughan, buseburnings in Roscommon, prosecutious capable of building and repairing all sorts and Wm Rooney, Paul O'Mars, E R Whelso, H

less leadly declined to even consider the re- (average two nearest dockyards from Roche's Stephens and sentenced to 14 years ponal limited of Commons by the Lards they never members they would strike terror into Glad. tion for the poor widow Keane, of Inisken the fulfil its promises regarding the with further risk of interception by sound firmities, and danger of his death obliged his less of condemning the Lords for what who were letting the Government do as they vested the money for a small annuity to be He please (cheers). He please (cheers). He please (cheers) burself, resorted to jury-packing of a or remi-sinking condition, is as the three years' incarceration. He died at Blackto be condemned by every sane tex- rock on the 23rd August, '82. Mr Doras then like the Tenants' Commission, another sop to thusiasm. ""IFFERENCE of free speech in the country" (ap- payer as is the cheese-paring policy, want of criticised Kickham's writings, quoting amongst close their months while they starved slowly Mr. Mattice O'Dennell. T.C. seconded the has made it necessary, and long since has of the Hills," "Blackberries," "St John's the Irish members of Parliament would have Timothy Gleeson also addressed the meeting. | men were following their avocation on the 9th "Solution and said that they had practical acquired the force of habit in doing wrong to Eve," and "Home Longings." "Knockna. the courage of insisting that as in the rase of

"atrea on no good whatever could be ob- like observance of it to the weak, whose sorrows and troubles of the Irish peasantry. yearly protests made laxity and wilfulness At P. F. Barry, T.C. supported the resolu- but more pitiable when the Parliamentary thanks was passed to Mr. Doran for his paper, the first thing they should ask the Government the meeting to a close. 22 it is aid that this was not a time whou representatives of the latter have been and with the shy in their words (hear, hear). urging the regeneration of the masses in A: Jucay and Mr Balfour as Chief Secre- England before their own. Have the boasted "Le of Ireland were chips of the same block. British civilisation and love of fair play retro- only. the people should depend upon themselves graded since the Geneva award, are their tierar, heart. Before Mr Morley entered | honour and gratitude only echoes from mytho-moult not wellow Mr Morley, or any offi- in the argument. Herehaven paloce pos- to Mr L C Strange for presiding at the meetthe Government, after the un-Chris- sesses the requisite natural conditions to com- ing was unanimously passed. Mr Strango the and unfering answer sent to the secretary pete, but having neither rail, building yards, having replied in very appropriate terms, the of the Lanerick Amnesty Association. They docks or skilled labour, like Passage—all need- meeting terminated. knew that the Government had tried to poison ing further source of permanent employment Jona Daly, and he hoped that the prisoners -may be excluded for present purposes. when the position like poor P W Nally, As to the alleged unsuitableness of Haulbow-

THE EVICTED TENANTS' found therefor in three or more storied houses would not be such a difficulty as described in and justice they would have no matter what Queenstown is only a mile away no matter what the weather. The rock-bound coast pre-The resolution was passed with enthusiasm, sents no greater difficulty than in many another yard, and the caiseon remaining can be temedied as elsewhere, or replaced by gates. If £100,000 needs to be spont there to perfect and complete the large sums already expended it should be done. I look on possible morning mail from Dublin on Monday morn- harbour mouth as nil, for Camden Fort blinds im to Queenstown. A special steamer verging fire of Spike Island at 23 miles, and board at Queenstown for a cruise round the as well as subject to torpede attack on either harbour. In the afternoon Haulbowline will be side from their shores at short distance. No O'Callaghan, Kanturk; J Lehane, D D Cronin, "DEAR SIR-With reference to the announce- visited, and the party will then return to Cork admiral would allow a vessel into such a trap Daniel Coleman, J Connors, J Scully, &c. ment made in the 'Evening Echo' of yesterin the steamer, making a stop at the Passage as she'd be sure to be sunk in. Any outside day re the council of the Chamber of ComDocks if there is time. At half-past six o'clock | shot must be a dropping one, fired by angle off to-morrow and inspecting with him the works st Haulbowline, I am directed by the Mayor to say that while it is true that after hearing the representations made to him by three of the control of the con the representations made to him by three of night mail on Monday, leaving the Glaumire, purpose. Haulbowline for building the largest arrangements made for that occasion, he has Mayor and a few members of the Chamber of |-are the proper relations of the yards, and needed in any respect in course of time to accommodate increasing size of ships, &c, the great courage and private enterprise which has placed its services at the disposal of the Empire, and magnaminously kept them open at heavy loss through long years of depression, now past, I believe, cather than let that industry become defunct in the spot where most wanted, has earned by value given the utmost consideration from all Governments, and I may say has a special claim; for State aid by loans at low rates, sufficient for all such changes, and for immediate and continuous employment in a extrems, extracetly desires for it-I am, dear acknowledge the receipt of your further letter large share of the work current new and in all of the 7th inst, and to state that the funds the future. Anyone who remembers, as I do, provided in the annual Navy Estimates are in- the great and varied employment given to car-A harriedly convened meeting of National- tended to be sufficient for the purposes previ- penters, joiners, upholaterers, painters, and a isis was held to-night in the Young Ireland ously indicated in his letter of the 7th Nov. bost of other trades, as well as shipwrights, in 1892, and in his interview with a deputation of the city of Cork, as well as Passage, and the Society's Rooms for the purpose of considering Irish members of Parliament and others on excellent quality of that done in the iron building yards above Passage years Mr John Morley, who is avowedly coming to As far as possible the policy then indicated ago before they had to be cleared away Cork at the instigation of Whig members of will be carried out, but in the interests of the for the new deep-water extensions and Parliament. The meeting was well attended. public service the Admiralty must use their railway terminus, must know that most public service the Admiralty must use their railway terming, must know that most of this lighter work would still go to Cork from Passage to be done by the bands that have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and that they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it is controlled. They want they have been so long wanting it is controlled they want for many is cord a deputation of evicted tenants an they have been so long wanting it.

With regard to placing contracts in Iroland, their or present greaters in Iroland. They have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it; and the they have been so long wanting it is scarcely reasonable to expect the execution would be maintained, and they have Deciar, J.M. Swiney, D.O'Mahony, W.Neville, T. Admiralty to create resources which experience a right to such, which can be given effect to penevan. J. Murphy, P. Lynch, J. Lyons, D. Rier- shows is better left to private enterprise. It is the coming Naval Estimates. In the coming shows is better left to private enterprise .- I in the coming Naval Estimates. In the coming inquiry into the past financial relations of Great Britain and Ireland, Sir J N M Keupa managed that the distribution of Imperial expenditure should be a factor, it is now easy THE NEW NAVAL PROGRAMME AND to render this branch of it unnecessary to extend into the future, for last night's division showed that the Ministry must give it, i t be firmly and persistently demanded; and Sin-In the "Irish Times" late leader on Mr Morley supported in doing what he can. Whatever consideration of expediency may masses' interests-exclusively of every lrish special one-since the Home Rule session (my of resources and seats in June, 1892, exactly sacrificing the Irish artisan to the English in this smaller matter which will not affect Home Rule, and delaying decided action till the money and opportunity for reviving this great industry on the Leo are both gone.

enforce the demand.

They know the need in Cork and the south. contracts and guarantee of continuance of Ireland's full proportion of all naval work in future, equitably distributed between North and South-without flinching, when they can By their conduct they will be judged. We shall see! Yours truly, M'GILLICODDY OF THE REEES. P S-Sir William Harcourt or others may act loyally to principle, or turning him out. THE CELTIC LITERARY SOCIETY. The weekly meeting of the Celtic Literary Society was held on Priday evening at 87 corrything that was bad and nothing that was -for vessels needing repair, coal, or orders ; to intellectual qualities, though it contained many against him in order to assist in getting a and in a more odious form, under cover, these great converging trade routes and inter- men equal in every respect to those of '48. tenant for his farm in the person of than thy Government he had ever known (ap- ests, it possesses similar relation to the whole Charles Rickhain is remembered more as one grabber." He concluded by hoping that Irish- west coast of Ireland, and is for attack, de- who suffered in a noble cause than as a writer men would rise up as before, stand shoulder to fence, or wid to mercantile marine, coasting of great merit, and it was to remedy that defect tion. In the Grand Old Man who kept take as interest in subsoil drainage.

It George S Crowley, TC, proposed—"That the United Kingdom's listeral. Also for the beloved Slievenamon, he cultivated that that had been made by the Irish representa-" and of the presence of Mr John Morley large fleets which yearly assemble for naval familiarity with his surroundings and that tives and the British Government for the past dealing with Gladstone. Whovever a vacancy of the point out to the people that the manustres, and casualties among which love of nature for which his writings after. four years, they meant business. It was time occurred in Ireland a political prisoner should ANOTHER VERY SAD FATALITY ON how some which he represents has failed to have been of too frequent and recent occur- wards were remarkable. At an early age he to come to husiness now (hear, hear), but he be sterted as a candidate (cheers). He would rence in successive years, to need refreshing met with an accident which permanently bored that the same fate did not await the like to see John Dillon, William O'Brien, and that the number of the Home others who supported John Mitchel's and Evicted Tenants' Bill as that of the Home others who supported John Mitchel's and Day (cheers). By electing the prisoners us Day Sta-Hardly had I completed a collecforesight, or of inter-Imperial morality, which other poems "The Irish Pensant Girl," " Rory to death their Slattery, Cork; Thomas Walsh, P L G; and its victims -in this case, six time brave fisher.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE AMALGAMATED SOCIETY OF

RAILWAY SERVANTS. Waterford, Sunday Evening. A largely attended and very successful meetthe strily broken, and Mr Morley did not | Considerations of small economy gained by ing in furtherance of the principles of trade the prisoners now. He was denciont cutting contracts are the only valid ones urged unionism was held this evening in the large thenty and pastice, for if he were not he by Lord Sponcer; but it could easily be shown room of the City Hall. Mr L C Strange, T C. and are for one moment to allow one that the costly effects of depleting local cur- solicitor, presided. Representatives from the the rebridinate officers to write such an rency by taxation from which a return in ex. Amalgamated Railway Servants, Typo-Prilinent letter as that written by the penditure is deuted, more than neutralises any graphical Association, Coopers, and Pork Greener of Portland Prison refusing to gain from this source, whose range is bardly Butchers' Associations, and also the representaafter that is to see the political prisoners 3 per cent, as shown by recent tenders tives of the other trades in the city attended. the people had a spark of manli- published. But if this neutralisation were Several apologies for non-attendance and they in them they would never rest till the mon-existent, I say that the single considers promises of sympathy were received from I were released, and if they told their tion of geographical advantages of position to several influential persons. Mr Tovenan, representatives that they would secure command and strike from the Lee, as a centre, secretary of the Amalgamated Society of licke in Ireland until they secured the over the greatest radius on the main line of Railway Servants, attended, and under the the prisoners these centlemen would unval and trade communication and operations, suspices of the Waterford Federated Trades be or ught to their senses (applause). As and if injured, to be repaired and sent to sea and Labour Union, delivered a very able and been as they were going begging they would again with the maximum of speed and mini- interesting lecture, in which he expressively herer tot anything for the country. The pre- mum of risk, at all times than from any other pat forward the principles of trades unionism betaharbour with deep water, is so far paramount ther, and to promnigate and forward the in-Mr P II Messie. T C. also supported the re- to the previous considerations both in policy terests of the workingmen. Mr Tyrrell also talet see and said that they could not and and economy that they become inadmissible addressed the meeting. A warm vote of thanks

BRASS NAME PLATES. For shops, offices, doors, vans, drays, carts, &c., who was done to death (hear, hear). It was line for general work, the weather effect on silver and zine Nameplates, Memorial Brasses anather of matter of market general that in open air would certainly be a shorten- marble Tablets, gold-lettered window Screens was all the real time in the prisoners ing of possible working time in the year; but Shop and Office fittings. Best and cheapest house an eloping couple from Ashton, the woman Government of the prisoners ing of possible working time in the year; but Shop and Office fittings. Best and cheapest house and under-The being married. The husband, however, Canada, some splendid specimens of grains drowned in Kingstown Harbour about four or took to get the vessel off. She is on the beach allowed the wife to married. The husband, however, canada, some splendid specimens of grains drowned in Kingstown Harbour about four or took to get the vessel off. She is on the beach allowed the wife to married.

ASSOCIATION. IR: MORLEY DECLINES TO RECEIV. A DEPUTATION.

DENUNCIATION OF GRABBING.

(PROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

· Cork, Saturday. The Evicted Tenants' Association held their

Mr James O'Connor said that in the interests of the evicted tenants they had written to Mr John Morley, asking him for an interview on the occasion of his visit to Cork, as they wanted to tell him of the grievous necessities of the evicted tenants and of, what was worse, their privations, namely-that their farms were grabbed wholesale (hear, hear). They wanted to point out to him that, owing to the grabbing, the cost and the difficulty of reinstating the tenants in their old homes would be far greater (hear, hear). He then read the letter to Mr Morley and the roply just received, which were as follows :-

" Evicted Tenants' Association,

" 41 George's street, Cork, " February 20th, 1894. thousands of evicted tenants and their families depend on their speedy re- of Cork, who expressed thorough sympathy storation to their former holdings. Alderman Horgan, Mr Field, M P, Michael tensats being immediately passed into law. formal, were received with expressions of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant in replying to a deputation from this association that when you are passing through Cork on your free and independent country (cheers).

JAMES O'CONNOB, 1 Hon. Becs. P. T. MERPHY. "To Right Hon John Morley. "To that letter this repry was received":-

such a deputation-Your obedient servants,

" Irish Office, London, " February 22nd, 1894. "GENTLEMEN-Mr Morley desires me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 20th inst, proposing a deputation to him of evicted tenants at Cork. In reply I am to say that, as already autounced, the case of the evicted vernment plots. enants throughout Ireland has received carenew acssion of Parliament, and as Mr Morley | do so. has been already made acquainted with the . "That we thank the French Press am -I am, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

" L. C. DOWDALI."

Continuing, Mr O'Connor said that what they so general that it should be put down at once Colling, of London." by every means in the people's power. The people in the districts where grabbbing pre- and said that these were times of peace, and decide whether they would leave evicted farms it the prisoners should be liberated (chers). and escape the odium of the people. He re- people thear, hear). What farm at Ahabultoge by a police sergeant, who in a year (cheers). offered compensation to the tenant, bus was arbitration, declined to abide by the decision, and held on to the grabbed holding.

Mr Daniel Coleman proposed-"That in order to suppress land-grabbing, which is becoming prevalent, we call on all such parties."

Mr Jeremiah Quirke recorded the resolu-

gow" was undoubtedly the best of all his prose the Parish Councils Hill, indignation meetings ingresolution was possed, amidst loud cheers - a squall capsized their boat and all were

On the motion of Mr Win Rooney a vote of new they would put the evicted tenants in run and elected against him." was to put the brake on so that the executive Next Friday an elecution class for members in Ireland, and especially Mr Morley, should THE WANT OF TELEGRAPH ACCOMwithdraw the forces of the Crown from evictug and he sh landlords. Mr J O'Connor - We were told that all these erabbers would fly when Mr Morley came into Mr Slatter, continuing, said that the brake should be jut on by Mr Morley, and he had a is a thoroughfare of very considerable imporprecedent for it in the Tory Chief Secretary, tauce. It is the business centre for our men's Fund," or sent to me direct. who refused the assistance of these forces of wealthiest guburb, the Pembroke township, the Crown in cases of unjust evictions, and its thriving commercial activity is mon and Mariners' Society, £10; Mrs Haigh, After all the promises the least Mr visible at a glance to any one who passes Morier could do was to refrain through it. The large and influential populafrom assisting landlords in unjust evictions tion of the surrounding district do all, or (bear, hear). As to the grabbers, he said that nearly all, their purchasing in the handsome the people were very ignorant if they had not terrace of shops that make this street by far hearts to feel for the distress of others to con long ago learst the lessons of those grand the most imposing thoroughfare outside the tribute liberally to this most distressing case .organisations, the Land League and the city bounds. National League. The people were never asked to hurt or harm the grabbers, but to prise many to hear that there is no means of pass them by and shun them at fairs and couding a telegram at its busy post office, the markets. The man who would hobbob with Lower Baggot street and Ballsbridge offices, the grabber was not much better than himself. both of which are at considerable distances, The grabber was no better than a robber, and if being the nearest available places. This is a he was not avoided his breath contaminated serious want of accommodation, and someothers and made his associates as bad as him- thing should be done to move the postal that it had the sympathy of the tenants for the Stephen's green Division would produce should keep on tighting, and putting their case assist in promoting such, -- Yours, etc. before the Government, and asking to be put back in their farms not as a favour but a matter of right (applause).

The meeting was adjourned for a week.

AMNESTY.

GREAT MEETING NEAR CORK.

Cork, Sunday Night.

RESOLUTIONS. (FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

At Carrigtwohill, ton miles from Cork, a weekly meeting to-day at 41 Old George's large and representative meeting was held tostreet. Mr Eugene Cotter, Carrigtwohill, pre- day for the purpose of advocating the immesided, and there were also present :- Messrs diate release of the political prisoners. The first challenged by his captor he gave the name John Slattery, R S Macnamara, James meeting was a great success, notwithstanding of D Neele. The particulars of the offence with O'Connor, hon sea; Patrick Crowley, Jeremiah | the hostile action of a section of the Federa-Quirke, William Aherne, A J Kelleher, Cor- tionist Party in the neighbourhood. The denclius O'Mahony, Donoughmore; Muthias monstration was very remarkable in the sense Casey, do ; Michael D Downing. Denis that while several of the speakers, and a large proportion of the audience belong to the anti-Parnellite Party, the attitude of the Government towards the political prisoners and to Ireland was the subject of the strongest conapproval of the multitude. There was a strong contingent from Cork, accompanied by the Workingman's Independent Band. Queenstown Brass Band was also present. Delegates were present from all the surrounding towns and villages. Mr J J Keller presided, and amongst those present were-

> D'Brien, Ladyabeldge. The Cork contingent included Measrs Manrice O'Donnell, T C: P H Meade, T C: P F Barry, T C; J Gitzgibbon, T C; J Slattery, J C Forde, hon sec

Letters of apology were read from the Mayor The peace and security of the country also Davitt, and others. The letters of Messrs depend upon a reinstatement Bill for evicted Flynn and Healy, M P's, which were cold and dissent. The Chairman, who was warmly received waited on him when he visited Cork said that said they had met to demand the release of from an executive point of view alone such a their long imprisoned countrymen, who were houses, but not inside the latter, might be figures that they are making from £2 to £3 per measure as we ask for was required. We hope suffering because they level Ireland, and tried readily tested, and the Corporation might be calves and pigs. In proof of my statement, I proposed visit to Haulbowline Docks you will would have been better for the prisoners that reinstatement will be made a realty without all over Ireland that would be a thorn in the the end of the week. Great excitement prefurther delay. Please say if you will receive side of the English Government (cheers). Mr P J Moore proposed :--

"That this great meeting of the Nationalist: of East Cork again call upon Mesers Gladstone and Morley, and the Liberal Government to release the Irish and Irish-American political prisoners, now being done to death in British dungeons, and declare there can be no true peace or union till these men are set free." "That we call upon both sections of the rish Parliamentary Party to use every means in their power to release those victims of Go-

"That we call upon the Irish-American Press ful consideration, and the Government have and people to take up the Amnesty question determined on the introduction of legislation and bring pressure to hear on the Congress, dealing with the matter in the approaching Senate, and President of the United States to views of your association, so usoful purpose people for the sympathy they have displayed could, in his opinion, he served by troubling on the Amnesty movement, and also for the your suggested deputation to wait upon him. | money they have subscribed, only another proof of the love ever displayed by France towards Ireland.

"That a branch of the Amnesty Associafeared was that after so much delay had taken | tion be formed in this parish, and that copies place something would turn up to delay the of the resolutions be sent to Messes Gladstone, reinstatement of the tenants further. He Moriey, M'Carthy, and Redmond, the Presiwas corry to say that grabbing was becoming dents of France and America, and General Mr Denis O'Regan seconded the resolution, vailed should go back to the old principles of the prisoners of war should be released thear, the Land League, and make the position of the bear). The flag of when had been hoisted grabbers so uncomfortable that they should but before Irish Nationalists could recognise alone or live a life of public odium (hear, hear). Mr P P Barry, T C, who was decived He did not mean that the people should beat with there, supported the resolutions, and or burt the grabbors, but he would ask them raid that the prisoners had been incarcerated to show by their action that it would be for fourteen years because they had tried present. The only losers by the change would day, when they may find that they have a great | the demand for his extradition, have been forbetter for the grabbers to give up the farms to advance their own country and ferred to the meeting to be held at Donough. up the prisoners was the prospect of release in more on the 11th of March to protest against | the future; but unless the people took sterner the gral-bing of the farm of Mathias Casey, steps their hopes would be blasted and blighted refused may settlement except the surrender. warmly received, also supported the resolu- the traps are open and let sowege gas escape ing of the farm altogether; and to a case near tion. He said that the mon they had put freely from the sewer close underpeath the Grenagh where the grabber, after agreeing to confidence in had neat them their oxcuses and windows of kitchess and basement bedrooms. the country while they were neglecting the a gallon or two of water every prisoners (hear, hear). By their votes they fortnight or three weeks into each

Messrs John Ronayno, Midleton, and John

STREET.

THE EDITOR DAILY INDEPENDENT. Elgin House, Raglan Road, 21th February, '94. Sin-As is well known, Upper Baggot street

Having regard to its importance, it will aurciation was carrying on the fight, and he know the able and energetic member that it had the sympathy of the tenants for the Standard and onergetic member to the Standard and Mr J R Smith, Leeds, was most everywhere who desired that the association the desired effect, and I shall be happy to represented at the meeting to be held in Dublin Society's the Power Dublin Society the Powe JAMES H NORTH.

CANADIAN GRAIN AND GRASSES. It will be interesting to agriculturists to On Saturday the Liverycol police arrested Co, 12 Edon quay, have just received from the eight o'clock, the body of Peter Callaghau, the stranded at No 1 Battery, Dunganess. The sidered at an end.

A COREMAN ARRESTED IN DERRY.

CHARGES OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY AND ASSAULT. STIRRING SPEECHES AND STURDY

Derry, Sunday.

ray, of the Derry Constabulary, on Friday effected the arrest of a young man named David Curtin, of Newmarket, Co Cork, and men:charged him with committing a highway robbery and assault in his native district on the 25th January. It appears that the accused had reached Derry, and had intended to sail for America on the day of his arrest. When which Curtin is charged are as follows-Wm Collins, a farmer, was in Newmarket on business in company with Malachy Collins, a man advanced in years, and both left that town together. Having being offered a lift on a cart ready, and may be had on application to any delivering speeches. The continuous down-of the bon secretaries at the above address. in-law of the accused, the Collinses accepted the offer, got up on the cart, and were driven for some distance when they again dismounted. demuation, which met with the enthusiastic A little later the Cellinses were attacked on the road about a mile from Newmarket by party of three, of whom the accused is said to have been the principal offender. The assault was evidently a determined one, the aggressors using "crops," or sticks weighted with lead at the one cod. Malachy Collins was struck and cut with the sticks a number of times, but Messra D Fitzgerald, P L G: P O Moore, V Law. he managed to get clear, and hurried back to ton, P Cotter, T Walsh, P L G, Shangarry; C G Newmarket for the police. In the meantime Doran, Queenstowe; Timothy Gleeron, Ballyma. Coda: John Ronayne, Midleton; M Guines, do; John taken from his possession. After the arrest of Curtin on Friday he was remanded. Saturday evening an escort from Newmarket, consisting of constables Keating and Lowe

THE WATER SUPPLY OF DUBLIN.

THE EDITOR DAILY INDEPENDENT. 14 Elgin road. Sin-The contention of the Dublin Sanitary charged for gas, he might, if he chose, use it creamery. lavishly or waste it-that is his own concern- Farmers going into the Land Court, if they force being wounded in the engagement. The luxury or carelessness.

for watering the streets, for washing markets, operative creameries. be the reckless and the wasteful, who would deal to learn.

and he hoped that the meeting would be so for ever (cheers). They were there to see if the surface soil, which permitted pathogenetic I could occupy more of your valuable space, successful that if it did not succeed in making they could soften the heartless germs to escape more freely than usual into but will reserve further correspondence on the the grabber give up the farm it would at least jailers, Gladstone, Morley, and Co (hear, the atmosphere. This may be a possible ex. matter until the chairman and Mr Stokes will THE MURDERER OF MAYOR prevent others from following his example, by hear). He said that they should appeal to the planation, but another suggests itself as quite reply to my remarks .-- Yours traly, making the names of the grabbers as detested Irish people in the United States, and if they as probable. The front areas and back yards as those of the traitors of years gone by thear, asked the American Government to demand of most bouses have one or more gully-traps for hear). He also referred to the grabbing of a their release the prisoners would be liberated draining off rain water into the sewers. It prolonged dry weather the water in these traps Mr C G Doran, Queenstown, who was evaporates, and in place of being water-scaled left them to shift for themselves (cheers), or back doors, and thus it readily gets into the present under consideration among those They should ask whether the Parliamentary house. During the dry weather of last representatives were doing anything at all for summer I found it desirable to pour sections of Nationalists to aid us in putting a had turned out the Government of Ballour of the gully-traps attached to my own ston to this nefarious practice, and to use and Salisbury, but had they put a better one in house. In the same way gully-traps at the every means in our power to make the matter their place? (No, no.) They had heard of edges of public footpaths become unscaled in the land for everything, more especially for uncomfortable for the grabber and all who aid evictions and house-burning under the present prolonged dry weather, as was very percepand assist him, and that we forthwith appoint Government, and the Press, platform, and table, indeed, last summer in some of the butter. Now, for my argument, let those vigilance committees to watch the action of pulpit were silent (cheers). The crowbar and suburban districts. With reference to water. the oilcan were used in Roscommon under logged subsoil, a distinction should be drawn churned, and find the amount of butternilk Mr Walter Wellman, a newspaper correspon-Mr James O'Connor acconded the resolu- Gladstone, as had been done by Balfour at between sawage logged and merely water. it contains after been taken out. Then, let of members of Parliament, suppressing of Suppressing Index of Parliament, suppressing of Members of Parliament, suppressing of Suppressing Index of Suppressing Index of Parliament, suppressing of Suppressing Index of Parliament, suppressing of Suppressing Index Gladstone, and then where was the difference? perts and statisticions are doubtless aware of (cheers.) When an evicted tenant died under the fact, the general public are not, that one a bridge near Cork, where was the denuncia- cut of every three deaths in Dublin is due to pickle of it, and wash the whole thing minutely a dush is to be made for the Pole, which the tion of the Government which would be heard consumption or diseases of the respiratory over again until every pore in the butter is as expedition hones to reach in a single summer, if Balfour was in power? (Cheers.) He did organs, that is, 33 persons out of every 100 they think supplied. The pickle, of course, is trovelling in two detachments, each consisting the Lier together, no matter what Go- trade, or his paper. Mr John Slattery supported the resolutions, and by wash- of seven men, one to act as a supporting party to the other. After advancing for 25 days to the supporting that which history has often shown to be the Kickham was born at Mullinghone about the agreement of the supporting that which history has often shown to be the former than the supporting that will return the other.

THE SEA.

THE EDITOR DAILY INDEPENDENT. 11 Percy place, Dublin, 23rd February, 1894. paid her for a certain number of years, than reports reach me of a terrible calamity having befallen six families of fishermen belonging to Kilkoel, Co Down. The sea has again claimed A vote of thanks to the chairman brought four widows, thirteen orphans, three aged provided for. I am induced, from my per-MODATION IN UPPER BAGGOT sound knowledge of these Kilkeel fishermen to doscrying cases that ever I brought before the Bank, Dublin, to my credit " Drowned Pinher-Already received-The Shipwrecked Fisher-

£5; E Harwood, £5; A Friend, £3 10s; Mesers Morris and Mayfair, London, £2; Thurles, 10s ; Miss May, 4s. Let me earnestly appeal to those having

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF MEAT

The President, Mr Win Field, M P, recently attended a banquet at Swanses. The Mayor was in the chair, and all the representative men during the Royal Dublin Society's show week pext April.

A BODY FOUND IN KINGSTOWN

Caverines related to allow visits, which mouth or Plymouth. A transolar open Dublin. bour near the East Pier.

THE INDEPENDENT HOME RULE FUND.

NATIONAL COLLECTION, SUN-DAY, MARCH 4th As already wired, Sergeant Detective Mur Subscriptions may be forwarded to the office of this paper or to any of the following gentle-

> TREASURERS-DR J. E. KENNY, M.P.; Du. FERENCH-MULLEN. A. J. KETTLE. HON SECRETARIES-T. HARRINGTON, M.P.; P. J. O'NELL, GEORGE COFFEY, J. CLANCE, T.C. Offices of the Irish National League, 43 O'Connell street, Upper, Dublin.

ADDITIONAL SCREENIONS.

Per Editor " Independent "-Mr Luke Doyle, Dublin

THE IRISH CREAMERY ASSOCIATION. some days through pressure on our space :-THE EDITOR DAILY INDEPENDENT. 35 O'Connell street, Waterford, February 20th, 1894. permission, I will repeat the question to Mr French authorities. These papers, we under-Anderson and the other creamery advocates.

Within the last two years hand separators for twelve months. The prisoner will strongly have been extensively used in the counties of protest against extradition. No mention is Association that the waste of water in Dublin farmers who sent milk to creameries have tions here, but the police are satisfied that he chiefly occurs in the water-mains and in the withdrawn from them and purchased hand was a friend of the French Anarchist Henry. service pipes connecting these mains with the separators, and are now prepared to prove by paid for all the water they supply if water need only mention one farmer in each county were treated like any other commodity and -Mr James Flynn, Gracedicu, Waterford; Mr for it. If a water meter were attached to the question is whether the farmer's wife at home vails. The streets are tilled with soldiers, and supply pipe of each house and the householder | can prepare her butter as well as the man or the citizens are panic-stricken. The insurgents charged for water by measure now, just as he is woman who is paid for preparing it at the defeated the Lovalists on Wednesday last near but the public rates would not suffer, and his have not water near home for domestic use, National police have deserted the President, neighbours would not have to pay for his will instruct their solicitor as to the heavy loss and joicest the rebels in a body. of sending once a day for water to some dis-The townships now supplied with Vartry tant spring, but never complain of sending ment battery at Ponto Madam has sunk the water should also logically pay, not by popul trice a day to a croamery.

lation or on their valuation, but by measure I must add that I often saw crowds of boys | the boilers exploded, and several of her crew at the place where the water of each township at creameries and on the roads going home, were killed. is taken off from the Vartry mains. The playing "pitch and toss," and if rebuked for aggregate of all such measurements deducted delaying by their masters they threaten to from the total quantity passing over Callow leave. These disadvantages are never con- the revolutionary movement in the Province Hill Weir would represent the consumption sidered when farmers are rushing into co- of Rio Grande is spreading and the insurgents for public baths, for street fountains, and It appears to me that all the speakers at the similar public purposes (most of which Creamery Association meeting were quite could be measured by meter) as well ignorant of the condition of the butter inas waste from the mains and ser- dustry of the South of Ireland. Mr Stokes vice pipes, and the latter could then be stated, "It was absolutely necessary that estimated. It is, however, extremely unlikely Irish farmers should be got out of the old that serious waste from a street main can be custom that had been followed by their long overlooked, for any considerable leakage fathers and grandfathers if they intended to drawn up a report on the case of Jabez of water under high pressure generally shows hold their own in the markets." I believe that Balfour in which he recommends the latter's on the surface, and is thus easily detected. A Mr Stokes will agree with me that the best extradition. meter rent on each house, similar to that way to hold your own in the markets is to get charged for gas meters, would come to over the top price. It will surprise Mr Stokes to £7,000 per annum, and this, capitalised at 7 learn that there are eighteen merchants at. Ayres says that the Attorney-General states per cent (or, say, 14 years purchase), is ential tending the Waterford Butter Market, which that the documents presented by the British to a capital of £100,000, which would certainly is supplied by co-operative creameries go a very long way in providing meters for and private creameries, and still The documents in the case have meanwhile every house in Dublin. The careful house | there are hundreds who make the butter been forwarded to the Salta judge for his inholder would doubtless gain by this, and the ster the system of their grandfathers spection. Corporation would not lose, as they would be | who get a higher price than the creameries, bepaid for all the water they supply as well as sides having genuine milk for calves and pigs. for their meters, and their existing Varter I hope that the next meeting of the associasupply would go much further than it does at | tion will be held in Waterford on a market | properly be charged for their own folly and It is rather fashionable to throw dirty water rests the decision regarding the surrender of The increased development of typhoid fever false idea of how higher rents could be made affirmative, however, Balfour will appeal to in 1895 has been attributed to the dryness of if the Irish were more thrifty.

the Supreme Court.

THOMAS POWER.

BUTTER-MAKING AND THE

ANALYSTS. THE EDITOR DAILT INDEPENDENT.

Sin-There is a very knotty question at city, concluded yesterday. The prisoner's apanalysts with Canon Bagot included, regarding the standard of water which ought to be in batter. I am certain they cannot fix one, usit is a natural production, and no man can retard nature without an injury to it. I take sweetness, because as is the fodder, so is the previously. Then, for keeping, the maker to the North West corner of Spitzbergin must get about 5los of the best salt and make | which is to be made the headquarters: thence much stronger then the water, and by wash. of seven men, one to act as a supporting party out the former water, just as a ferret drives | the supporting party will return, the other out the rabbit. It is then cured, and if the continuing northwards. In 50 or 60 days it is analyst tries again he just tinds the same, and expected that, travelling at the rate of ten only the same as previously. Butter will miles daily, the undertaking will be accomhold only what it requires, and will repel what plished. Norway is expected to be reached on it does not. Every farm in Iroland has its the return journey in October, and America in standard, and even if you devide that November. farm into two or three farms they all will have different standards. I have SMALL-PON ON A P. AND O. LINER. been in the trade for ever 30 years, and understand it well. So well that I have believed from first to last that factories would never. which arrived here from London for Sydney. and never will produce keeping butter, be- has been detained in quarantine owing to she cause they must have too much pressure, presence of small-pox on board. and it only smashes the pores in the butter, and when these are broken where, I sak, is the pickle to remain for curing? Besides. you can see this by their butter after being

On the motion of Mr Walsh, the follow- inst, about three miles from the shore, when else, and the best of it will not, and cannot Department of Ande. In the former M Poule-That we call on the Branches of the Irish drowned. I do not know in the whole of Iru- keep good for more than four days, and it will roy, Republican Deputy, was elected, while in Thirty years, or so, after we have paid the position of the headens of the friend in the headens of the headens thear, bear). If the Government meant busi- that one of the present Political Prisoners be maintain their families by proceeding to fish in cropped up at the court in Manchester regard- ment of the result of the election gave rise to bad weather. The consequence has been that ing two quantities of cream being divided and some hostile demonstrations, and at Carfuthers and mothers and seven brothers and and the results were entirely different. None meric. sisters (twenty-seven people) have been left unsisters (twenty-seven people) have been left unso here goes to do it just for your information. and see what you think of it, for surely you appeal once more for help, in one of the most because And fight those fac- of the National Literary Society, will be detories, because, as sure as 1 write this, they livered by Dr George Sigerson, F R U I, topublic, for the widows and orphans. The are the biggest curse that Ireland ever saw. livered by Dr George Sigerson, F R U I, to-smallest contributions will be thankfully re- Now, to prove to you what I mean. It is morrow evening, 27th inst, at eight o'clock, at ceived, and may be paid into the National surely a natural production, and being so, no the Leinster Lecture Hall, Molesworth street.

AND SHAREBOLDER,

A GLASGOW VESSEL IN DISTRESS

Dangeness, Saturday. the large four-masted ship Ketton, of Glasgow, Nicaragua and the Liberal party of Honduras.

THE LONDON ANARCHISTS.

ABORTIVE DEMONSTRATION AT BOURDIN'S GRAVE.

THE ANALYSIS OF THE BOMB. London, Sunday Night. The Press Association's representative had an interview with Colonel Majendie to-day. and ascertained that he (Colonel Majendie) had completed the analysis of the pieces of shell found in Bourdin's body, and also the man's clothes. The expert will give a full and detailed description of the bomb and how it was made, and the explosive it contained, at the inquest to morrow; until then he is

The London Anarchists had intimated their intention of assembling at Finchley Cemetery precluded from giving further details. .

to day to emulate the action of the admirers of damped the ardour of the demonstrators. They d did not arrive as promised, at all events to no appreciable numbers. During the whole day 0 not more than three hundred persons sought Bourdin's grave, now indicated only by an unadorned mound of turf situated prominently The following letter has been held over for in the centre of the extensive unused portion of the burial ground. These visitors viewed with some surprise and apparent concern a body of police under the personal supervision of Superintendent Wron and Inspectors Barnett and Bryant, who were awaiting DEAR STR-In last Friday's and Saturday's events in the vicinity, and to make sure of issues of your journal I read with great interest grave and out of the cemetery. The gates of the report of the general meeting of the the cemetery were closed to the public at dusk. Creamory Association, and was very much | The Press Association understands that fur-"Honourable Sir—We enclose you resolution passed at our meeting last Saturday, and which appeared in Press of yesterday. We again respectfully urge on you the pressing necessity of carrying this resolution into practical effect, as the lives and fortunes of practical effect, as the lives and fortunes of practical effect, as the lives and fortunes of the speakers. The constant and papers in connection with the city to take the prisoner in arrived in the city to take the prisoner in disconnection with charge. A transmit order was made out, and the hand separator. It is now two years since 1 wrote to Mr R A Anderson, the organiser, to know if he had any experience of have arrived from Paris. Through the produced in the city to take the prisoner in derivation of the connection with charge. A transmit order was made out, and the hand separator. It is now two years since 1 wrote to Mr R A Anderson, the organiser, to know if he had any experience of have arrived from Paris. Through the produced in the city to take the prisoner in the city to take the organism that introduced in the city to take the organi Press, was, " I saw one at work." With your is expected Galen will be handed over to the

THE REVOLT IN BRAZIL.

stand, will disprove the prisoner's allegations that he has been in this country uninterruptedly

INSURGENT SUCCESSES.

Poxina, nearly every man of Marshal Peixoto's

A telegram from Rio states that the Governtransport Mercurio. As the vessel went down Buenos Ayres, Sunday.

According to the latest news received here lave entered Saut Anna.

JABEZ BALFOUR,

Buenos Ayres, Saturday. The Public Prosecutor of Argentina has

London, Saturday. A Pail Mail Gazette telegram from Buenos Legation are sufficient to extradite Balfour.

Buenos Ayres, Sunday. The report of the Argentine Attorney-Balfour, and the documents connected with warded to the judge at Salta, with whom now on Irish butter makers and give landlords a the accused. Should his judgment be in the

HARRISON. Chicago, Sunday. The hearing of the application for a new trial by the man Prendergast, the assassin of Mr Carter Harrison, the late Mayor of this plication was refused, and his execution has been fixed for the 23rd proximo. ANOTHER POLAR EXPEDI-

Washington, Sunday. An expedition to the North Polo has been Albany, W A, Sunday. The P and O Company's steamer Massilia.

FRENCH ELECTIONS.

Two bye-elections to the Senate were beld weighed to two different parties to be churned, casonne the mob was dispersed by the gondar-

NATIONAL LITERARY SOCIETY. The next public lecture, under the auspices man can retard nature without spoiling it to The subject of the learned doctor's lecture will some extent. Therefore, from the timo that be "The First Saint of Erinn," a subject the cow is milked, and even before, nature is which affords fair scope for speculation, and working on to maturity. Then, of course, all the essence is coming to the top, even in cream about which the majority of people have, to as well as in milk, and no matter how they say the least of it, very ill defined notions. The might have mixed it up and down, it is all the period with which Dr Sijerson will necessarily same, they would be sure to have different deal in the treatment and development of his results, as aforesaid. But lot them get a theme is a very remote one indeed, and it is as possible as near as they can to half- whilst engaged in exploring the dark and way. Have a clean board made before almost unknown labyrinths of the history of hand that will fit from side to side and also up such distant ages that the rare scholarship and down. Now, as it is a natural production, and orudition of Dr Sigerson are seen to the you must take or leave the whole body best advantage. The chair will be filled by the top to bottom, and give each side then after Rev T Finlay, S J, and those who are mem weighing them to two different apparatus, and | bers of the National Literary Society can gain I think if I am not an ass that the results will admittance to the lecture by tickets pur

The Consul-General of Nicaragua in Paris received a telegram on Saturday from the Nicaragnan Minister for Foreign Affairs an nouncing the capture of Tegucigalpa, the At one o'clock this morning during the cale capital of Honduras, by the allied forces of

2 63. 5 30 to 8,